Free Chest X-Ray Unit Here Twice This Week

The mobile TB x-ray unit will visit the Quad-City area this week with the public invited to take part in the free chest x-ray survey on Thursday at the Venice police station and on Saturday at the City Hall in Granite City.

Hours at the Venice location, Broadway and Klein street, will be from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Thursday. The mobile unit will be stationed outside the city hall in Granite City from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

The unit will offer the free chest x-ray service on Saturday, April 11, at the Dairy Master, 419 Madison avenue, Madison, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., returning to Granite City for a second visit on Friday, May 1, from 10 a.m. to noon and from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the same city hall location.

The county-wide chest x-ray program is financed through voluntary contributions to the TB Christmas Seal Campaign. The Madison County Tuberculosis Association, sponsors of the public service project, initiated its Quad-City visits by the unit to Granite City.

William A. Dorsey, association president, reminded residents that pregnant women will not be chest x-rayed unless they present written requests from their physicians. He also pointed out that TB clinic out-patients should not substitute mobile unit chest x-rays for regularly scheduled clinic examinations. The 1970 combined community and industrial survey is free to all area residents 18 years old and over. Dorsey said. Five cases of active tuberculosis were found among 23,614 adults x-rayed on the mobile unit last year.

Negative findings are reported directly to the individual. Findings other than negative are relayed to the family physician named by the individual at the time the x-ray is given, the official explained.

Local industries the mobile unit will visit within the next few weeks, include: Granite City Army Depot; Tuesday; A. O. Smith Corp.; Wednesday; Union Electric Co.; Venice plant, Thursday; Union Division, Miles Laboratories, Monday, April 13; Granite City Steel Co., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, April 15 and 16; St. Elizabeth Hospital, Wednesday, April 23; and the Nestle Co., Friday, May 1.

Demo, GOP Committees' Conventions Set Tonight

The Madison county Democratic and Republican Central Committees, made up of precinct committeemen elected in the March 17 primary, will hold reorganization meetings in Edwardsville tonight with little conflict anticipated in selection of county committee chairmen by either party.

The Republicans appear ready to elect Clyde P. Belcher of Alton as county committee chairman to succeed Charles R. Walters, also of Alton, who lost his opportunity for reelection when he was defeated as precinct committeeman by a political newcomer, Belcher, who was chairman of the Alton District Republican committee where he did not run for reelection in a recent reorganization session.

Democratic committeemen are expected to re-elect Walter T. "Buck" Simmons of Venice to his sixth two-year term as county Democratic chairman. Simmons, committeeman of Venice Precinct One, said there has been no opposition to his candidacy "upon arrival at the polls" and he expects to be re-elected in tonight's meeting.

Simmons said Sam Wolf, Precinct 25 of Granite City, will be a candidate for secretary-treasurer of the Democratic county committee tonight to succeed James Chapman, county recorder of deeds who has held the post for many years but who plans not to seek reelection.

Bekker, a clerk at A. O. Smith Corp. plant in Granite City, is said to have Walters' support for election as county chairman, a post that now carries considerable political prestige since the county chairman handles patronage available through the state administration.

He is committeeman of Precinct 5 in Alton. He also is a vice-chairman of the county committee.

Committee Reorganizes
Meanwhile, Granite City Democratic committeemen reorganized Thursday night in a meeting at the levee district garage in which the city's 32 committeemen re-elected William Warfield, city street

Police reported that about 2:30 a.m. Saturday cruising officers saw two youths leave Lewis' tavern carrying several packs of beer. Because of their youthful appearance, police stopped them at the tavern parking lot as they were entering an auto in which two other youths were seated. All four were taken to police headquarters for questioning.

The youths admitted they had driven to Madison to buy beer and that Heiple, accompanied by one of the others, had bought four six-packs at the Lewis tavern, authorities said. Police returned to the tavern with Heiple whom, officers reported, identified Lewis as the man who had sold him the beer. Police also said Heiple told them he had not been asked for identification. Lewis was ordered to appear at police headquarters after the tavern closed. Lewis appeared about 4:40 p.m. and a complaint was issued, officers said.

Griffith to Meet Grand Jurors in Levee Dist. Probe

Madison county State's Atty. R. W. Griffith plans to appear before the St. Clair county grand jury when it reconvenes April 22 in connection with the Madison-St. Clair county investigation into affairs of the East Side Sanitary and Levee district. Griffith announced Thursday afternoon.

Griffith did not discuss the matters he intends to discuss with the grand jurors, but he told reporters that he requested permission to appear before the jury during a conference Thursday with Robert Rice, state's attorney of St. Clair county, in which plans were mapped for a full investigation into financial affairs and administrative policies of the levee district.

The four trustees of the levee district, William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice and Morris Campbell, Lawrence Tolar and George Duff of East St. Louis, were named in an eight-count indictment two weeks ago charging misconduct in office. The four trustees are accused of misfeasance and are free under bonds of $5000 each. No trial date has been set.

A joint investigation of the levee district is being conducted by the Madison and St. Clair county state's attorney's offices because parts of the district lie in both counties. The Madison county section of the district embraces Granite City, Venice, Nimeski and part of Chouteau townships.

Griffith said he and Rice also discussed procedure for recovery for the taxpayers allegedly excess fees paid levee district attorneys during the 1962 year, one of the grounds for several counts of the indictment.

With the current Granite City school term running until June 1 due to the late start last fall resulting from a teacher strike, it is planned to begin the 1970-71 term Tuesday, Sept. 1, about a week later than had been customary in recent years.

Principals are to meet Wednesday, Aug. 26, and orientation of new teachers is slated for Friday, Aug. 28.

The entire faculty is to assemble for opening faculty meetings Monday, Aug. 31. First holiday of the fall term will be the following Monday, Sept. 7, Labor Day.

Other first-semester holidays will be Columbus Day, Monday, Oct. 12; Veterans Day, Wednesday, Nov. 11; the Thanksgiving holidays Thursday and Friday, Nov. 26 and 27; and the Christmas-New Year holidays.

Plans call for the Yule vacation to begin at the close of school on Wednesday, Dec. 23, with classes resuming on Monday, Jan. 4.

The fall semester will end Friday, Jan. 22, and the spring semester will open Monday, Jan. 25, continuing through Friday, June 4.

New Spring Holiday Dates

Spring holidays for students in the 1970-71 calendar are Lincoln's birthday, to be observed on Monday, Feb. 8, in conformity with federal law; a teacher institute day Friday, March 26; Good Friday, April 9; and the day after Memorial Day, Monday, May 31, also a new federal holiday.

The March 26 institute date is subject to change.

In addition, the school board annually declares several additional non-attendance days. These are not punctuated at this time due to the possibility of severe weather or other circumstances which might prevent classes from being held.

Grade periods are to end Nov. 6, Jan. 22, March 25 and June 4, with report cards sent out Nov. 10, Jan. 22 (grades 7-12), Jan. 26 (grades kindergarten-6), March 30 and June 4.

Youth Pleads Guilty To Burglary Charge

Logan Kitchell, 17, of St. Louis, pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville. He applied for a computation of new tax rates and property valuations announced by County Clerk Eugene Hotz last week.

Figures show the billing may run even higher after extension of the new tax rates for the East Side Levee and Sanitary districts, the only agency within Granite City township for which a new rate has not yet been established. The levee district rate is extended by St. Clair county, tax officials who customarily lag well behind the Madison county clerks' office in tax extension work.

The estimated $9,837,274 billing this year is based on newly established tax rates for five of Granite City's six taxing districts, plus last year's levee district rate of 39.1 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The township's total tax bill will be increased proportionately with any rise in the levee district rate. Some tax experts expect the levee rate to go up at least three cents for the 1969 tax year.

New Rates Hike GC Tax Bill $415,601

Granite City taxpayers will be billed this summer for $9,837,274, or $415,601 more than the total tax bill extension of $9,221,673 last year, according to a computation of new tax rates and property valuations announced by County Clerk Eugene Hotz last week.

* Denotes some levee district rate at last year. New rate for levee district is fixed by St. Clair county tax officials and has not yet been determined.

The above rates are listed in such a way that they affect the majority of property owners in the separate taxing areas. For taxpayers living within the boundaries of different governmental agencies, the overall rates will vary accordingly.

Persons living in the Long Lake fire district in Namooki township should add 10 cents to their rates to determine their local rate. Those in the Miracle Manor-Bellemeire Place Lighting district should add 9.8 cents. In the State Police, taxpayers of the Lighting district should add 12.5 cents.

Venice residents who live in Granite City school district should apply that school rate instead of the Venice school rate. In all cases the overall rate can be determined by adding the rates of governmental districts in which the taxpayer lives.

The overall rates are applicable to each $100 assessed valuation.

The tax rate of Granite City first time, and a new rate of School District 9 for the 1969 year was set at $3.33 per $100 assessed valuation, up 20.1 cents over last year's rate of $3.129. The new rate for Venice School District 3 is $2.839, an increase of 54.2 cents over the 1968 rate of $2.297, and the new rate for Madison School District 12 is $2.598, up from last year's $2.502.

City Rates Jump
Rates of all three cities in the area also increased. Granite City has a new rate of $1.331, compared with 99.5 cents last year. Madison has a new rate of $1.131, up from $1.027. Venice has a new rate of $1.131, up from $1.027.

A breakdown of the Granite City school district rate shows that because of a substantially increased assessed valuation, along with a $200,000 tax levy reduction the rate for educational purposes dropped from $2.284 last year to $2.123 for the 1969 tax year. The building rate, however, increased from 34.86 cents last year to 37.14 cents, and the new rate for transportation is 8.03 cents, up from 6.82 cents.

Principal increase in the District 9 rate was for payment of bonds and interest. The new rate for that purpose is 56.6 cents, compared with 51.29 cents last year. The municipal retirement fund rate increased from 7.72 cents to 9.5 cents. The school district rate includes 4.96 cents levied under the fire protection code for the

Homestead Exemption Deadline Tomorrow

Senior citizens planning to seek the $1500 homestead exemption on real estate property they own and occupy have through tomorrow to do so. Applications for the reduction in assessed valuation are available at the office of the township assessors where the forms also must be filed.

Granite City property owners who qualify for the exemption may obtain forms at the office of Assessor James Barton, 1904 Delmar avenue, Barton said his office will process the applications, including photostating warranty deeds, without charge.

In Venice township the applications are available at the office of Assessor John Brick at 401 Madison avenue. Joseph Cohen has forms available for Namooki township residents and Chouteau township property owners may get the forms from Assessor Otis R. Reeves who may be contacted at 254-5088.

The quality for the exemption, applicants must have reached 65 years of age or more on Jan. 1 this year and must occupy the property for which the exemption is sought. The reduction was provided in legislation approved by the General Assembly last year.

Face to Face with China to be Aired

How two countries—Taiwan and the mainland—are facing the threat of Communist invasion from Red China will be subject of a National Educational Television documentary program, "Face to Face with China," to be aired Monday, April 6, on Channel 9.

The documentary program, entitled "Face to Face with China," will focus on the political and economic state of the two countries, which are dependent on the United States for assistance and haunted by the prospect of Americans pulling out of Southeast Asia after the Vietnam war.

The film will point to the economic expansion and general prosperity of both countries and to their efforts to combat Communist infiltration and propaganda efforts centering on the island of Quemoy, called "Freedom Fortress" by the Nationalists, and in U.S.-Thai projects such as the Friendship Highway.

Taiwan and Thailand count on the United States for support in a resolute stand against China should it come, and with Americans present in Southeast Asia they feel no serious threat of this happening. They wonder, however, what will happen if Americans pull out and they are left alone to face China.

Area Vocational Center in Alton To Open in 1972

An area Vocational Center, in which the Granite City school district has agreed to participate subject to a right to withdraw at any time without penalty, is expected to begin actual operation in September 1972.

"It is the opinion of the administration that this program would be a supplement to our present offerings and not a substitute for them. The various offerings proposed for the area center will meet the needs of some of our students that we presently do not meet," Supt. B. J. Davis has commented.

"We shall continue planning and expanding our vocational program and consider the area plans as an 'ice in the hole' while developing our own," he believes. The center is to be located in the Alton school district.

Following are the tentative curricular areas to be offered at the center. Programs currently offered in Granite City are marked with asterisks.

Census Takers Will Wear Special Identification Cards

Householders will have no difficulty in identifying enumerators for the 1970 Census of Population and Housing. District Manager Ray B. O'Neill of the census office at 1119 East Main street, Belleville, pointed out today.

Enumerators, or census takers (most of whom are women), are making their rounds in this area calling at homes for which no census forms were mailed back and at homes from which incomplete forms were returned.

Each census taker will wear a red, white and blue identification card. This card bears the seal of the Department of Commerce, and the words "Census Enumerator, Official Credential" are printed across its face. It bears the census taker's signature and certifies that she is authorized to perform the duties of a census

Mothers Day Weekend At Illinois U. Set

Mothers Day Weekend at the University of Illinois, Urbana campus, will be May 1, 2 and 3. All Illinois mothers are invited to spend all, or part, of three informative and "fun" days with their student son or daughter.

Mrs. Lucille Caban of Granite City president of the University of Illinois Mothers Association, said this week.

The recipient of the 1970 Broderick Award of Honor Award, Mrs. Dora Daugherty Strother, will be present at the 48th annual meeting of the Mothers Association set for Saturday morning, May 2. A coffee and get-acquainted hour for mothers and university officials is planned before the meeting, Mrs. Caban advised.

Day and evening activities have been arranged to entertain "Mom" on her special weekend, the association president said. Special events will take place in the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, the University Theatre, where the student musical, "Music Man," is being staged, among other attractions.

Parents of students residing in campus dormitories may contact their student for space for the weekend or check for accommodations at the Mothers Association Office, Student Services Building, at the U. of I. campus.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Caban.

GC Golfers Bow Twice

Dave Rouland shot rounds of 80 and 83 but inconsistent scores from teammates allowed the Warriors to bow in their golf season openers to Quincy high Thursday and to Quincy CBC Friday. Both meets were at the Arlington course.

On Tuesday at 3:30 p.m., GCBS will visit the Edwardsville high school team, playing at the Sunset Hills links, and on Thursday the Warriors will be at Bethalto.

In the 329-362 loss to Quincy high, Warrior individual scores were the lowest four scores counted toward the team total: Rouland 80, Earl Anderson 87, Tim Schwendeman 88, Bob Peacher 102 and Bob Zellerman 106.

Losing to Quincy CBC 341-349, GCBS had scores of Schwendeman 81, Rouland 83, Anderson 89, Peacher 96 and, fifth man Jack Eagles 99.

Schmidt on Staff Of Easy Ed's Camp

Jerry Sloan of the Chicago Bulls basketball team and the University of Illinois head basketball coach, Harry Schmidt, will head the guest coach camp at Ed Macauley's all-star camp at Aurora.

The week-long camp will be held at Marmon Military Academy, 40 miles west of Chicago, from Sunday, July 5, through Saturday, July 11.

Now in its second year of operation, the camp was successful last year in providing well-rounded sports and recreational activities for Illinois youth. Basketball, swimming and tennis will be taught.

Boys who have completed the eighth grade through seniors in high school are eligible. High school athletes are eligible to attend the camp without jeopardizing their eligibility for prep sports. The camp has been reviewed by the Illinois High School Association and complies with all of its rules.

Special features will include a tennis tournament and swimming meets. Guest coaches for both swimming and tennis will be announced later.

Sloan, a two-time selection to the National Basketball Association all-star game, has averaged in double figures in four of his five years as professional basketball player. The 6-6 former Evansville University player has been one of the chief reasons for the surge of the Chicago Bulls this season.

Schmidt, most valuable player on the 1958 U. of Illinois squad in his senior year, has rebuilt the Illini into a Big Ten title contender in just his third year as head coach. After directing Illinois to a second-place tie last year, Schmidt placed third in balloting for the "national coach of the year."

For further information and an application, interested boys can write to Ed Macauley's All-Sports Camp, 1455 Reauville drive, St. Louis, Mo. 63122.

Spirited GC-Lancer Competition Tuesday as Track Campaign Opens

GCBS cindermen will make their first competitive appearance outdoors at 4 p.m. Tuesday here, with the Belleville East Lancers. The meet had originally been scheduled last week, but unpredictable weather conditions prompted the postponement to tomorrow.

Both schools have a large number of standout performers returning from last year.

Couch Paul Browning, whose Lancers bowed only once in nine dual meets last spring, names Granite City as one of the most difficult opponents on his schedule.

Don Miller, first-year Warrior hurdler, has special interest in this fresh air opener.

He was an assistant to Browning last spring.

Mike Allen, high and low hurdles school record-holder, is expected to demonstrate for his teammates how to win early in the meet. Belleville's Paul Gillespie holds his school's hurdles marks.

Two-mile GCBS record-holder Rick Rose and his two-mile cohorts will also run near the beginning of the meet and can expect more than fair challenges.

Couch Browning regularly gives his personal attention to the distance runners and the Belleville East team reflects Browning's coaching.

Team captain and state meet qualifier Brad Cochran heads the Lancers' distance contingent. Cochran holds his school's double-mile record with 9:56.2. Rose's best time is 10:13.3.

In a major area of their usual team point strength, the Warriors can expect no easy time of it Tuesday. Top local runners on one or more relay squads are Mark Lakatos, Jim McDuffy, Dennis Gille, Don Smith, Ken Eliff, Allen, Geoff Lux, Ralph Rogers and Bill Schooley.

Team points may be lost to Belleville East in sprint and weight events. Former all-state griddler Tom Lang is the top dasher. Shotputter Bob Burns was tossed over 50 feet. Paul Gerber has sailed the discus over 144 feet.

Mike Mullinex and Smith are Granite City's best hopes in the pole vault and high jump, respectively.

Dublin Rally Tops Cougars

The Cougars put up a good fight but bowed 4-3 to the College of Dublin in the University College of Dublin soccer tournament in Ireland Saturday.

Today, SIU-SW meets Edinburgh University of Scotland in the eight-day tourney.

SIU-SW took the lead with center forward John Calver's opening goal. Dublin tied it but Tom Howe scored to give the Cougars the lead again.

Rick Benben, goalkeeping for SIU-SW, blocked a penalty kick but was ruled to have been in motion before the ball was kicked, giving Dublin a second penalty shot.

Dublin scored with the second penalty try and made another goal for a 3-2 advantage.

Just before halftime, Caranza scored to tie the count, 2-2. The winning kick for Dublin occurred five minutes into the second half.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT TECHNICIAN, Andrew Brauer of SIU-SW working on a saxophone in his workshop at the university.

Works on SIU-SW Musical Instruments -- 1725 to 1970

"I'm too mechanical to be musical," says Andrew Brauer, musical instrument technician at SIU-SW. "You can't be too mechanical when you play an instrument."

Andy, as his friends call him, may not be musical but he has proven himself to be a very famous musical figure to many in this area.

"When we were looking for someone to fill the new position of musical instrument technician in the summer of 1965, we sought the finest in the field," says Prof. Lloyd Blakely, chairman of the music faculty. "He was right here in our own backyard."

"I've been a band instrument repairman since I first landed a job with the St. Louis Band Instrument Co. during the depression of the '30s," Brauer says. "My uncle taught private music lessons there and he helped me get the job. The company was owned by Joseph Gustaf, who was first trumpet with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. Many of the Symphony players gave private lessons there."

Paris Restored

He can make old instruments look like new and even restores parts if necessary. "One time I remodeled a clarinet to accommodate a musician who had lost the top joint of his right forefinger. The holes have to be covered with the fingers in playing the clarinet, Brauer explained, "and this gentleman was unable to do this after his accident. I removed the finger holes and replaced them with a pad socket and a lever which he could hit and close the two keys."

"My work is interesting," he says. "Each person who comes to me has a different problem. If it's a horn, sometimes I try blowing it myself, and most of the time I can tell immediately what the difficulty is."

"In the old days we had a lot of big name bands come to St. Louis and some of the members used to come to me for help," he reminisced. "I remember Dick Jurgens, Artie Shaw, Stan Kenton and Cab Calloway, to mention a few. On one occasion, Freddie Martin brought in his gold-plated C-melody saxophone."

Brauer says sometimes he was "left holding the bag" when a big-time player left town without paying his bill. "I soon learned to put my own customers first. They were more important and more reliable."

Role at River Festival

Brauer still repairs instruments for St. Louis Symphony players, particularly those on the SIU-SW call staff. When the symphony was in residence here last summer during the Mississippi River Festival, he handled some emergency jobs. When he was first approached about a job at SIU-SW, Brauer had reservations. "You don't have enough work to keep me busy," he responded. Now he says, "What a terrible mistake that was."

In addition to keeping the University's 200 brass, string and woodwind instruments in tip-top shape, he has charge of their inventory, assigning them to students and doing the general bookkeeping.

"I can't remember my locker combination" is a typical student lament, according to SIU-SW's "Mr. Fixit." To handle this kind of situation, he keeps a cross file of names and locker spaces and all the combinations.

Teachers Future Directors

Brauer also teaches a class in musical instrument repair, which he considers essential for every potential band or orchestra director. "It isn't a required course," he says, "it meets only two hours a week for one quarter, just long enough to teach the bare minimum about repairing. We don't have a final exam, but after the third class session I can usually tell what kind of a grade the student is going to make."

Legislature to Meet Wednesday

Illinois legislators began gathering in Springfield today for the 1970 session of the General Assembly which will get underway Wednesday with presentation of one of the top issues of the session—the new state budget for fiscal 1971.

Gov. Ogilvie has given no indication of the amount of spending for which he will ask legislative appropriations, but on the basis of last year's record budget of $4.4 billion, the new appropriation bill is expected to range from $4.5 to $5 billion.

Limited advance briefings on the budget for news men indicate that it contains a recommendation for an increased state and formula to elementary and secondary schools.

Plan Brief Session

Ogilvie is reported planning on a legislative session of from four to six weeks. Legislators are expected to deal primarily with revenue measures and administration-supported bills.

State aid to private and non-public schools appears certain to be a major issue. Gov. Ogilvie earmarked $32 million for that purpose in the 1969 session, but after state aid for private schools was approved in the House it died in the Senate Education Committee. The legislature also is expected to replace the governor's mammoth freeway road program, which was killed two weeks ago by a Supreme Court ruling holding the method of issuing $2 billion in highway bonds as unconstitutional.

Tips on Using Chlorine Bleach

You can safely use chlorine bleaches in recommended concentrations on white cottons, linens, nylons, acrylics, modacrylics and polyesters.

Before using such bleaches on dyed cottons and linens, check fabrics for color-fastness. You can determine whether the bleach will change the appearance of the fabric by testing on a sample of the material or on a hidden part of the article—a seam allowance, hem, inside of pocket or tail of a shirt.

Do not use chlorine bleaches on silk, wool or spandex because the chlorine will yellow and damage such fabrics.

Washable Woolens

Manufacturers now use several finishes to "make woolens" a d-o-r-machine-washable. Look for the trademarks Dyanize, Nuritan and the Woolmark to be sure the item has been treated to resist shrinkage when laundered according to directions on the label.

Local Ingenuity to Spark 'Guys and Dolls' Performances April 3-4

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

Discovering top local talent; persuading performers to arrive on time at rehearsals; even selling the public on buying tickets proved relatively easy to producers of this coming weekend's "Guys and Dolls" musical, to be staged Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. at the Granite City Elks Club.

Help was needed, however, from several unusual and diverse sources when it came to costuming the 34-member cast, it was learned this week.

The East Bank Players in local offering to Quad-City area residents is set in the Roaring 20's era and presents a musical fable of Broadway life.

While some early fashion styles are being revived on today's market, the absence of wide-brimmed men's hats, pointed shoes and pin stripe suits was keenly felt by cast members, who depict "soft touch" gamblers in the Frank Loesser musical that ran for 1200 consecutive performances on Broadway.

The plot revolves around

Shirah Brown of the "Save-A-Soul Mission," portrayed by Norma Mendoza, and the antics of her erstwhile beau, Sky Masterson (Raymond Peradotti), "the highest player of them all," whose difficulties in finding a location for the "big crap game" create a series of humorous incidents.

At the amateur theatrical company's first dress rehearsal last week, the conversation came around to "where did you find your costume?" The answers were varied and educational.

Several men admitted purchasing shoes and hats from the Goodwill Industries. Costumes for the Cuban dance scenes were borrowed from the Granite City Mexican Honorary Commission.

Salvation Army hats were loaned the troupe by the Tri-Cities Salvation Army Corps, according to Mrs. Milt Heischler, the show producer. The uniforms, worn in the mission numbers, were pieced together from old band uniforms donated for the performance on a loan basis by Louis Meek, director of the Granite City high school band and several band students.

The sewing, the show producer noted.

Mrs. Heischler announced today, the "Guys and Dolls" cast will present a special backstage preview and free performance at 8:15 p.m. Thursday for senior citizens of the community. The guests are invited to attend the final dress rehearsal and get acquainted with the directors before the show, she said. Members of local senior citizens clubs and other retirees may pick up tickets from David Morgan, director of Granite City housing authority, at the Kirkpatrick Homes office.

One of the key members of the newly-organized East Bank Players is Mrs. Richard (Jane Nightingale) Branding, who is serving as musical director for the "Guys and Dolls" show and also appears in the role of Gen. Matilda B. Cartwright of the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Branding, a well-known vocalist, has performed with the St. Louis Symphony, local opera groups and with F.A.M.S. East Opera Company. She is a former teacher of vocal music in the Granite City school system and winner of district Metropolitan Opera auditions in St. Louis.

Con Con Delegates Amazed At Public's Intense Interest

Amazement at the intensity of feeling of the citizenry about this Constitutional Convention and about the needs of a Constitution was expressed by delegates who attended the recent public hearings at Alton. It was brought out today by Wendell Durr of Edwardsville, a delegate of the 53rd District.

Reviewing the events in his "Delegate Diary," Durr stated: "From the hearing in Alton, it became clear that there were a few areas of intense interest to the people, one being to preserve the public school system and also the private school system by not allowing the district intervention of one in the affairs of the other, and another point being the right of the individual citizen to keep a d bear arms, and a third point being the permitting of the people themselves to decide whether they want to retain townships and other local forms of government rather than trying to cram any particular form down their throats."

"The importance of these expressions of wishes by the voters is the fact that all delegates have the upmost in their minds the fact that the voters must approve the Constitution before it becomes effective. I submit that is a pretty good system."

"The Bill of Rights committee has voted to report out as a recommended committee proposal or a part of a recommended proposal the proposition that 'subject only to the police power of the state, the right of the individual citizen to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

"This does not interfere with the state's power to regulate the sale, possession, use or carrying of arms, including firearms of all types, knives, clubs, etc. It does not express the concept that the individual citizen is trustworthy and is the sovereign under our system, and the government is his servant and not vice versa."

"The recommendation of the committee is basically my member proposal 105, and I am convinced that this only says that the state may not confiscate arms, although of course, it can confiscate arms improperly used, it can prohibit certain types of arms from private ownership, such as machine guns, anti-tank guns, artillery pieces, bombs, etc."

"We have seen a great deal of hysteria in the editorial pages of newspapers around the state on this subject, but some calm reflection is needed more than the great quantity of noise without thought that we have seen being stirred up in the news media."

"Recently, the Revenue committee on which I sit, voted tentatively to remove all ceilings on the state itself, but to prohibit the backdoor incurring of debt by the use of high-pitched authorities and building authorities. If possible, and to require all debt to be incurred in a referendum, with our eyes open so that we all know what we are doing. Also, the incurring of any debt would be possible only after approval by two-thirds of each house of the Legislature and an affirmative vote by the majority of the voters voting on the proposition statewide."

"This seems to us a pretty good method of returning to the taxpayers themselves some control over the burdens which are to be loaded on their backs."

"Our main problem is the Revenue committee now is how to provide local government with sure sources of revenue adequate to finance their operations, since we all seem to want to grant local government more automatic powers to deal with local problems, without having to run to Springfield for help. This is based on the belief that local government knows best what the problems are and how to solve them, and also on the belief that it is easier to control your local government than one situated in Springfield or Washington."

Veterans for Depot To Meet on Wednesday

Representatives of veterans organizations from the metropolitan area will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Granite City VFW Post 1300 hall in a campaign to retain the Granite City Army Depot.

Principal speaker will be Howard Colquitt, executive secretary of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Mayors in Madison and St. Clair counties have been extended written invitations to attend, and veterans groups in St. Louis and St. Louis county are seeking a public hearing on the order by the federal government to phase out operations at the depot by July 1971. They are urging a massive letter-writing campaign to President Nixon, senators and congressmen from Missouri and Illinois and the Department of Defense requesting that a hearing be conducted.

Dry Cleaners Named In $100,000 Law Suit

A suit for $100,000 was filed last week for Jukko Inc., operators of the former Scotch Wash laundromat here, against Belleme One-Hour Cleaners in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

The complaint alleges that Scotch Wash was forced to close its business as acid fumes emitted by the Belleme cleaners firm rusted, corroded and damaged the laundromat equipment. Negligence was charged.

Census Facts For Transients

Even persons away from home on Census Day will be counted.

"The Census Bureau intends to find you in your hotel or motel and count you as a resident of your home, city, county and state," District Census Manager Ray O'Neill, said today.

"This will require a special project called 'T-Night,' with the 'T' standing for 'Transients.' T-Night will be March 31 throughout the United States and the management of all hotels, motels and other large places for transients will take part."

"If your household has not received a 1970 census form in the mail, the Census Bureau wants you to call 314-622-3021 after March 31 (tomorrow) between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.," O'Neill stated.

Mental Health Week Set 1st Week in May

Mental Health Week will be observed nationwide May 1 through May 7, John F. Briggs, acting director of the Department of Mental Health recently announced. Co-sponsors of the statewide event in Illinois will be the Illinois Association for the Mentally Retarded and the Department of Mental Health, the officials said.

The annual open house program at Alton State Hospital will take place from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 3. Dr. Abraham Simon, superintendent said this week. Appointed to head the arrangement committee were Mrs. Marjorie Duntelmann and Mrs. Mae Oller.

The entire program will be geared toward inviting area residents to visit the hospital, Dr. Simon said. Many of the patients will serve as greeters in their ward and as tour guides.

Open for tours will be three new patient residential facilities—Elm Cottage, which houses the children's program for St. Clair-Monroe Counties Unit; Locust, a housing unit for both acute and chronic adult female patients from the Eastern Counties Unit; and Holly, formerly the acute hospital, which now houses the mentally retarded adult population from the Eastern Counties Unit.

Executives Nominated To A. O. Smith Board

The president of Oscar Mayer & Co. and a senior executive vice-president of RCA have been nominated to the board of directors of A. O. Smith Corp., it was announced today by L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer.

Smith said shareholders would vote April 8 on five director nominees. P. G. Beach, president of Oscar Mayer & Co., Madison Wis., and Delbert L. Mills, senior executive vice-president, Consumer Products and Components, RCA, New York.

Their election to the board would fill vacancies created by the death of James D. Porter and the retirement of F. Shepherd and Cornell. Shareholders are also being asked to re-elect seven other directors, which would maintain membership of the board at nine.

Beach, 55, a native of Chicago, has been president of Oscar Mayer since 1966 and a director since 1954. He has spent his entire business career with the firm, joining the company in general in the Chicago plant. The national meat processing firm, which specializes in sausage, recorded fiscal sales of $566 million last year.

Mills, 62, a resident of Bronxville, N. Y., joined RCA in 1960 as a division vice president and general manager of the RCA Victor Home Instruments Division. He was elected to the RCA board of directors in 1966. His previous experience included general manager of the Electric Motor Division of A. O. Smith and president of Federal Telephone and Radio Division of ITT Corp.

Cleve Will Conduct Symphony This Week

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will present one of its four major assistant conductors, George Cleve, as guest conductor of the orchestra on Friday, April 3, at 11 a.m., and Saturday, April 4, at 8:30 p.m., at Powell Symphony Hall. Cleve was assistant conductor here during the 1967-68 season and is currently in his second season as music director and conductor of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra.

This is Cleve's first return engagement since he assumed his duties in Canada. The program for the concerts will include Mozart's Overture to "Magic Flute," Brahms's Symphony No. 3, Wagner's "Forest Murmurs" and Roussell's Symphony No. 3. Cleve has conducted many of this country's prominent orchestras, including the Cleveland Orchestra, the New York Philharmonic, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and the Philadelphia Philharmonic, and abroad with the Radio Philharmonic Orchestra of Holland.

Ticket prices for Friday's concert are $1.50, $3.00, $4.00, $4.50, $5.50 and $6.50. Saturday's ticket prices are $2, $3.50, $4.50, $5, $6 and $7. Tickets for both concerts may be purchased at the SIU-SW University Center.

Crew Leader Named For U. S. Census Here

Nina McFarman, 2412 East 25th street has been appointed a crew leader for the 1970 U. S. census of population and housing in this area, it was announced today by Ray B. O'Neill of the Census Bureau's Temporary office at 1119 East Main street, Belleville.

Each crew leader will supervise 15 to 20 enumerators in the nationwide census that begins Wednesday. Crew leader training is now under way and topics include procedures for recruiting census enumerators, training, canvassing methods, preparation and submission of reports and supervision of enumerators to insure a complete and accurate count.

U. S. Census Information Is 'Strictly Confidential'

"When Uncle Sam takes his decennial census photograph of the American household, he contributes its own uniquely important details."

However, no individual household or any of its members can be singled out for viewing. That's because the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, which clicks the camera shutter, also takes complete charge of the resulting snapshots. And these snapshots, used only for statistical purposes, cannot by law be disclosed to any person outside the Bureau for any reason whatsoever.

"When you receive your official census form through the mail, shortly before April 1, you can rest assured that no single fact about you can ever be identified in any published or unpublished data compiled by the Bureau of the Census," it was pointed out by Ray B. O'Neill, manager of the Census district office at Belleville.

"True, you will be counted as one of so many million males or females in Uncle Sam's counting project. You will be numbered among the so many college graduates or high-school dropouts, as the case may be. But no one can learn that you are 27 or 53, for example, or that you live in a house or apartment or at a particular address."

Complete Anonymity

"This complete anonymity is made possible because when your official census form is filled in and returned from processing, your name and address are withheld when the other items are fed into the computer. No person, no family, no housing unit is identifiable in the resulting statistical output. Furthermore, no other government agency may examine individual census records for any purpose whatsoever."

"There is more to protect your privacy than the legal guarantee of anonymity."

"Each census employee, whether he is a permanent or temporary jobholder, takes a special oath as follows: 'I will not disclose any information contained in the schedules, lists or statements obtained or prepared by the Bureau of the Census.' Violation of the oath carries a stiff penalty."

"This year, chances are that 60% of all American households will never see a census enumerator unless they need help in filling out their forms and request assistance or they are tardy in returning the forms. This is because for the first time persons living in most metropolitan areas will mail back their completed census forms in specially furnished envelopes."

"In short, although each member of your household, including the brand new baby, will be recorded as an important individual on your census form, each of you becomes for census purposes, an utterly anonymous segment of the statistical story of your city, your county, your state and your nation."

"One exception can be made—and it is made to help you. Suppose you have no birth certificate and you need proof of your age for Social Security, Medicare or retirement benefits. Suppose you need proof of family relationship in claiming a rightful inheritance, suppose you need proof of American citizenship for a passport or job requirement."

"In any of these circumstances, the law will accept as valid a transcript of these personal items as they appear on your census record. However, this is an important fact to remember, only you or your authorized legal representative can secure such a transcript."

"If you need such assistance—and some years nearly one million Americans are helped—send for an Age Search Application form to the Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of Census, Pittsburgh, Kan. 66562. When it comes, fill it out and return it with the required fee of $4 or $5."

Water, Sewers Vital to Development of County

(Eighth in a Series)

Public utilities constitute a vital factor in the development and growth of a community, county and region, the new Madison County land use and transportation report shows.

The report, developed by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Planning Commission, notes that water and sewerage services are typically taken for granted.

It is only when these facilities fail that the average citizen becomes aware of their importance. On a regional basis, there is a growing need for planning the systematic provision of a reliable, domestic water supply and adequate waste disposal systems.

Problems related to the provision of water and sewerage facilities are especially critical in the fringes of developing urban areas where improper or indiscriminate reliance on individual wells or waste disposal systems is often prevalent.

Sound planning and construction of water supply and sewer facilities is essential to assure the availability of an adequate supply of safe water, the prevention of pollution, the elimination of health nuisances and hazards and the conservation of ground water resources.

It is also important for the encouragement of economical and orderly development of land for urban uses since the character and location of newly constructed water and sewerage facilities often act as a prime determinant in the ultimate use of the land.

A new look at miracles

About two thousand years ago, lepers, life-time cripples, and the insane were healed by Christ Jesus and many of his followers.

But somehow their accomplishments have not become a natural way of life for most people, who regard them as strictly phenomena of the past.

The fact is, though, that instances of healing and regeneration through enlightened prayer are going on today. Every day.

You can hear some outstanding examples—and how they were brought about—in a talk by Naomi Price, C.S.B., of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. This is an hour you may never forget.

FIFTH & MADISON

There is an abundant supply of raw water available in Madison county. The primary sources of surface water are the Mississippi river and the Silver creek basin. The principal sources of ground water are located in the American Bottom.

The ground water supply is replenished periodically through percolation from the Mississippi river and from infiltration of surface water runoff. The abundance of raw water resources does not necessarily indicate the adequacy of the supply of potable, or treated, water.

Only proper management of water resources can assure the delivery of an adequate supply of quality water. Provision must be made for the transmission, treatment, storage and distribution of the water.

Within Madison county, there are a number of inadequacies of water supply which must be evaluated and improved in accordance with proper management techniques. Improvements are needed for about three-fourths of the existing public water supply systems in the county.

Municipally-owned public water supply systems serve about half of the county population. About a fourth utilizes individually owned facilities, and the remainder is served by privately owned utility companies, including the Quad-Cities area which is served by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co.

Madison county includes portions of five major drainage basins—Kaskaskia river, Silver creek, Platte creek, Wood River and the American Bottom. Sewage treatment plants discharge either direct into the Mississippi or into one of the drainage systems listed above.

The Mississippi receives direct drainage discharge from Alton, Hartford, Roxana and Wood River, while the Quad-Cities is served by the East Side Levee & Sanitary District.

The county has numerous areas not served by sanitary sewerage systems, including at least 40% of the population. There are numerous problems related to the existing sewerage system.

Several of the treatment plants are overloaded and have restricted development in many communities. It is anticipated that more than 40% of the plants will be overloaded before the end of the decade.

Upgrade Treatment

More than half of the communities in the county will be required to upgrade and degree of sewage treatment to the tertiary level prior to 1972 in order to comply with criteria established by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board.

The board requires tertiary treatment for all effluent discharged into interstate waters. Communities which presently discharge directly into the Mississippi river will be affected by a requirement that the level of treatment be raised to secondary level before 1982.

An additional requirement will affect communities which have combined collection systems for sanitary sewage and storm water. By 1978, these communities must either separate the collection systems or provide treatment for all storm water overflow.

The inventory and reconnaissance portions of an area-wide study for water and sewerage facilities have been completed, and federal funds have been requested for a detailed field survey.
